CELESTIAL CEN (8) made a promising if not belated debut when runner up at Lingfield Park on soft ground four weeks ago. No surprise to see her produce another bold show here and unlikely to be too far away. EGYPTIAN PHARAOH (6) placed on his last three starts including when making stable debut at Windsor in a 2000m contest a fortnight ago. Looks a major player and cannot be ruled out. MOTHER DEAR (4) improved for the step up in trip at Goodwood and looks the type who should be able to keep improving. DIALSTONE (2) makes his debut for a smart operation. Well related and worth a market check taking on a realistic test.

DAPPLED LIGHT (1) arrives in scintillating form after winning his last two performances. Both of those wins came at Bath in 1600m contests and this marginal drop in trip is unlikely to be an issue. Hat-trick should be achieved. RED MOON (9) improved on handicap debut at Salisbury before finding a soft ground course and distance handicap too much just three days later. Better expected here.
