QUICKSTEP GAL & I SALUTE YOU MAIDEN...

FLAT TURF Participants #13

LIGHT THE FIRE (7) has produced two good third place finishes to date. He showed pace over this distance at Scottsville last time and stayed on well at the finish. The son of One World returns from an 11-week spell during which time he was gelded. He is a horse with scope and if not too green around the turn, he may be the one to beat. COCCOLINA (5) caught the eye when second on debut over this course and distance last start. She would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected, she should give the males a decent run for their money. MAGIC SURPRISE(1) showed good improvement when third over this distance on the polytrack last time. It must be noted that the horse that finished second that day has come out and won since. If confirming his recent improvement, he should be involved at the finish. DEVOTED (3) didn't do a lot on debut three-and-a-half weeks ago, finishing ninth of 10 over 1200m at this track when well supported. Fitter and can place.

FLAT TURF Participants #10

VENCEDOR (1) moved up like a winner over this distance last time before getting caught in the shadow of the post. Rachel Venniker takes 1.5kgs off his back and he jumps from pole position. He should get a good sit in the running and may find himself in the winner's enclosure. PIED PIPER (4) should have finished a lot closer to the winner last time as he hung outwards in the straight. He is a progressive type and if not too green on this track, he should place. DIRECTOR (5) has run three fair races to date. He should love the rise to 1600m. S'manga Khumalo is booked to ride and he may be able to get the best out of him when it matters most. PEMBURY (2) raced wide around the turn last time and understandably did not go on with the effort. It must be noted that the horse that finished second that day has come out and won since. He should enjoy the rise to 1600m and from his good draw of two, he should be finishing in the money.

GLADIATORIAN OPEN MAIDEN

FLAT TURF Participants #11

CALL ME WILD (2) has shown good improvement in his last two starts. He may have cost himself winning last time as he hung outwards and shifted away from the whip over the closing stages. He should have no issues with the rise to 1900m and he can go one better. FINE WINE (7) is better than her last start run would suggest when she took no interest. Her form prior to that outing was decent. If putting her best foot forward, she should go close. INVICTUS JET (1) stayed on well when second over 1750m last time. The cheekpieces seem to have done the trick and if confirming her recent improvement, she should run a big race. LIMELIGHT LEGEND (11) has decent recent form lines to his credit. He finished second in his only attempt on this course, three runs ago. With a bit of luck from the widest draw, he should finish in the money.

FUTURE VARIETY (1) was given a gun ride when winning last time out after coming form last at the turn. The manner in which he finishes off his races suggests that he should not have any issues with the rise to 1400m. He jumps from pole position and can bring up the hat-trick. IMILENZEYOKUDUDUMA (2) is better than his last start resuming run would suggest. He has won twice and finished second twice from seven starts over this distance. He won second-up here last prep and can add to that record here. THE SHEPHERD (5) produced a good comeback run when third over this distance at Scottsville last time when finishing third of nine at long odds. It must be noted that the horse that finished second that day has come out and won since. He will strip much fitter and is worth considering. GIMMEANOTHERCHANCE (9) was well fancied last start over 1600m at Greyville All Weather when fourth of eight. Has sound form at this track and distance with a win and two placings from four starts. ROSH KEDESH (9) won a good race over this distance at Scottsville last time. He took the lead at the 200m mark that day and kept finding to hold all challengers at bay. It must be noted that the horse that finished second has come out and won since. He has won once and finished third twice from as many starts on this course. With a bit of luck in the running can follow up with another victory. MASTER JOSH (2) won his stable debut at long odds over this course and distance last time. He would have come on from the run and merits healthy respect. ISIKWISHIKWISHI (1) was sent out as the favourite last time out at Greyville All Weather and finished a nose second of eight over 1200m. Won't be bothered by this longer journey. He has placed second in three of his four runs this prep and looks hard to beat. AMOR FATI (6) won over 1400m at Scottsville last start in what was his second run this prep. Fitter and is well worth considering.

AYUWI YUWI (8) should have finished a lot closer to the winner last time as she had a mouth injury and was reported to be not striding out and coughing. Her penultimate run when third was encouraging. She steps back up to 1200m and with a bit of luck in the running can return to winning form. RUGGER LOVER (5) ran a fair race over 1500m last time. She won a good race over this distance on the polytrack in her penultimate outing. Callan Murray retains the ride, and she should be fighting out the finish. BUTTERCUP BABY (4) had excuses in her last start over this distance on the polytrack. She returns from a spell which would have done her the world of good. POSITION OF POWER (2) produced a good second of 12 over 1200m here last start after winning on debut over this course and distance. It must be noted that the winner of that last race has come out and won again since. He returns from a well-deserved 12-week spell.
